COMPOST

HOW TO MAKE COMPOST

1 CHOOSE SITE

Choose site wey dry, dey shaded spot near your farm or use container like drum, wooden box, or dig compost pit.

2 PREPARE THE WASTES

Cut large pieces of waste into smaller bits.
Sort greens (wet materials) and browns (dry materials) in equal parts.

3 ARRANGE IN LAYERS

You go layer the dry and wet detty on top each other in equal quantity, starting with the dry materials

4 ADD WATER

Add small water, no soak am. Then cover am with the sheet.

5 TURN AM

In 4 weeks, come back and turn am again. You go dey turn am every 4 weeks

6 CHECK THE PILE

After 12 weeks, all the compost suppose don turn dark, crumbly, and e no go get green or brown. E mean say the compost don ready.

7 DRY, STORE, OR SELL

Spread the compost for sun for 2–4 days make e dry. Pack am for bags or cartons for home use or sale.

